ADVERTISERS

Because of . . .

that indefinable quality in you that prompts us to confide in you . . .
your willingness to do all that is asked of you . . .
your deep sense of humility . . .
your quiet, calm manner . . .
your determination to see things through, no matter what the cost . . .
what we have known of you in the classroom, in organizations, and in your home . . .
what you have meant to us and because of what we hope this dedication will mean to you . . .

we, 1958 Seniors at Miller, dedicate this book to you . . .

MRS. BRUCE THRASHER

Because we wish to thank her for . . .
her friendly smile . . .
the happy hello she gives to every student she meets . . .
the sincere personal interest she takes in all our activities . . .
the guidance and leadership she gives to our well-rounded school paper . . .
we, the Lanier Senior Class, proudly dedicate the 1958 Miller-Lanier Annual to . . .

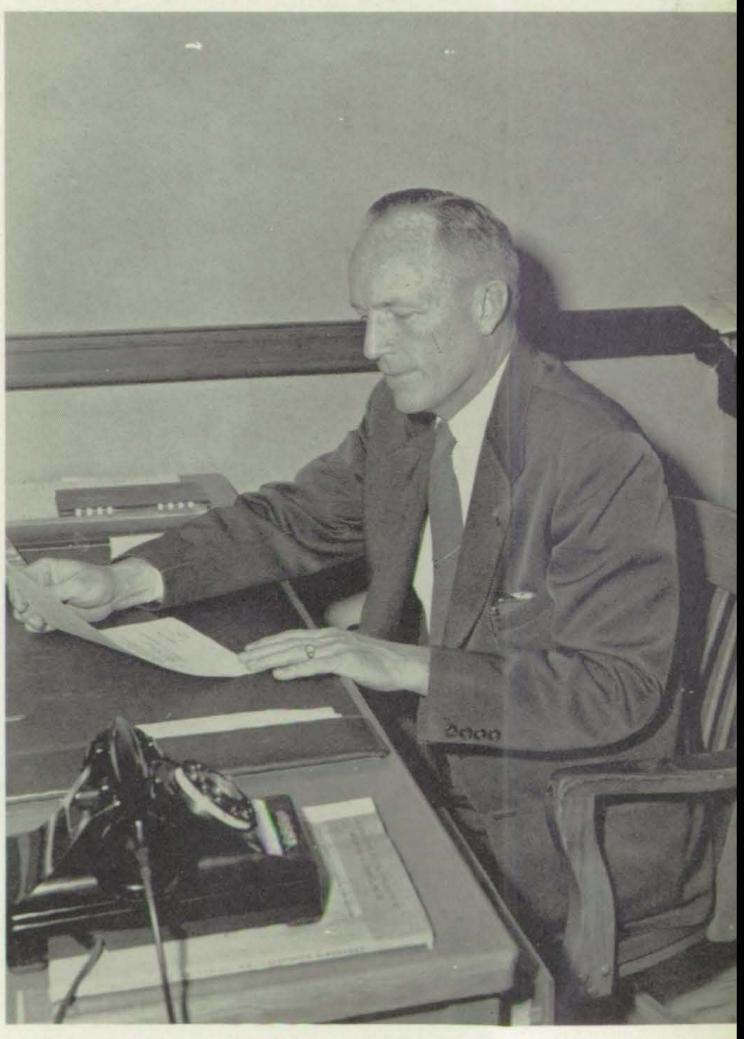
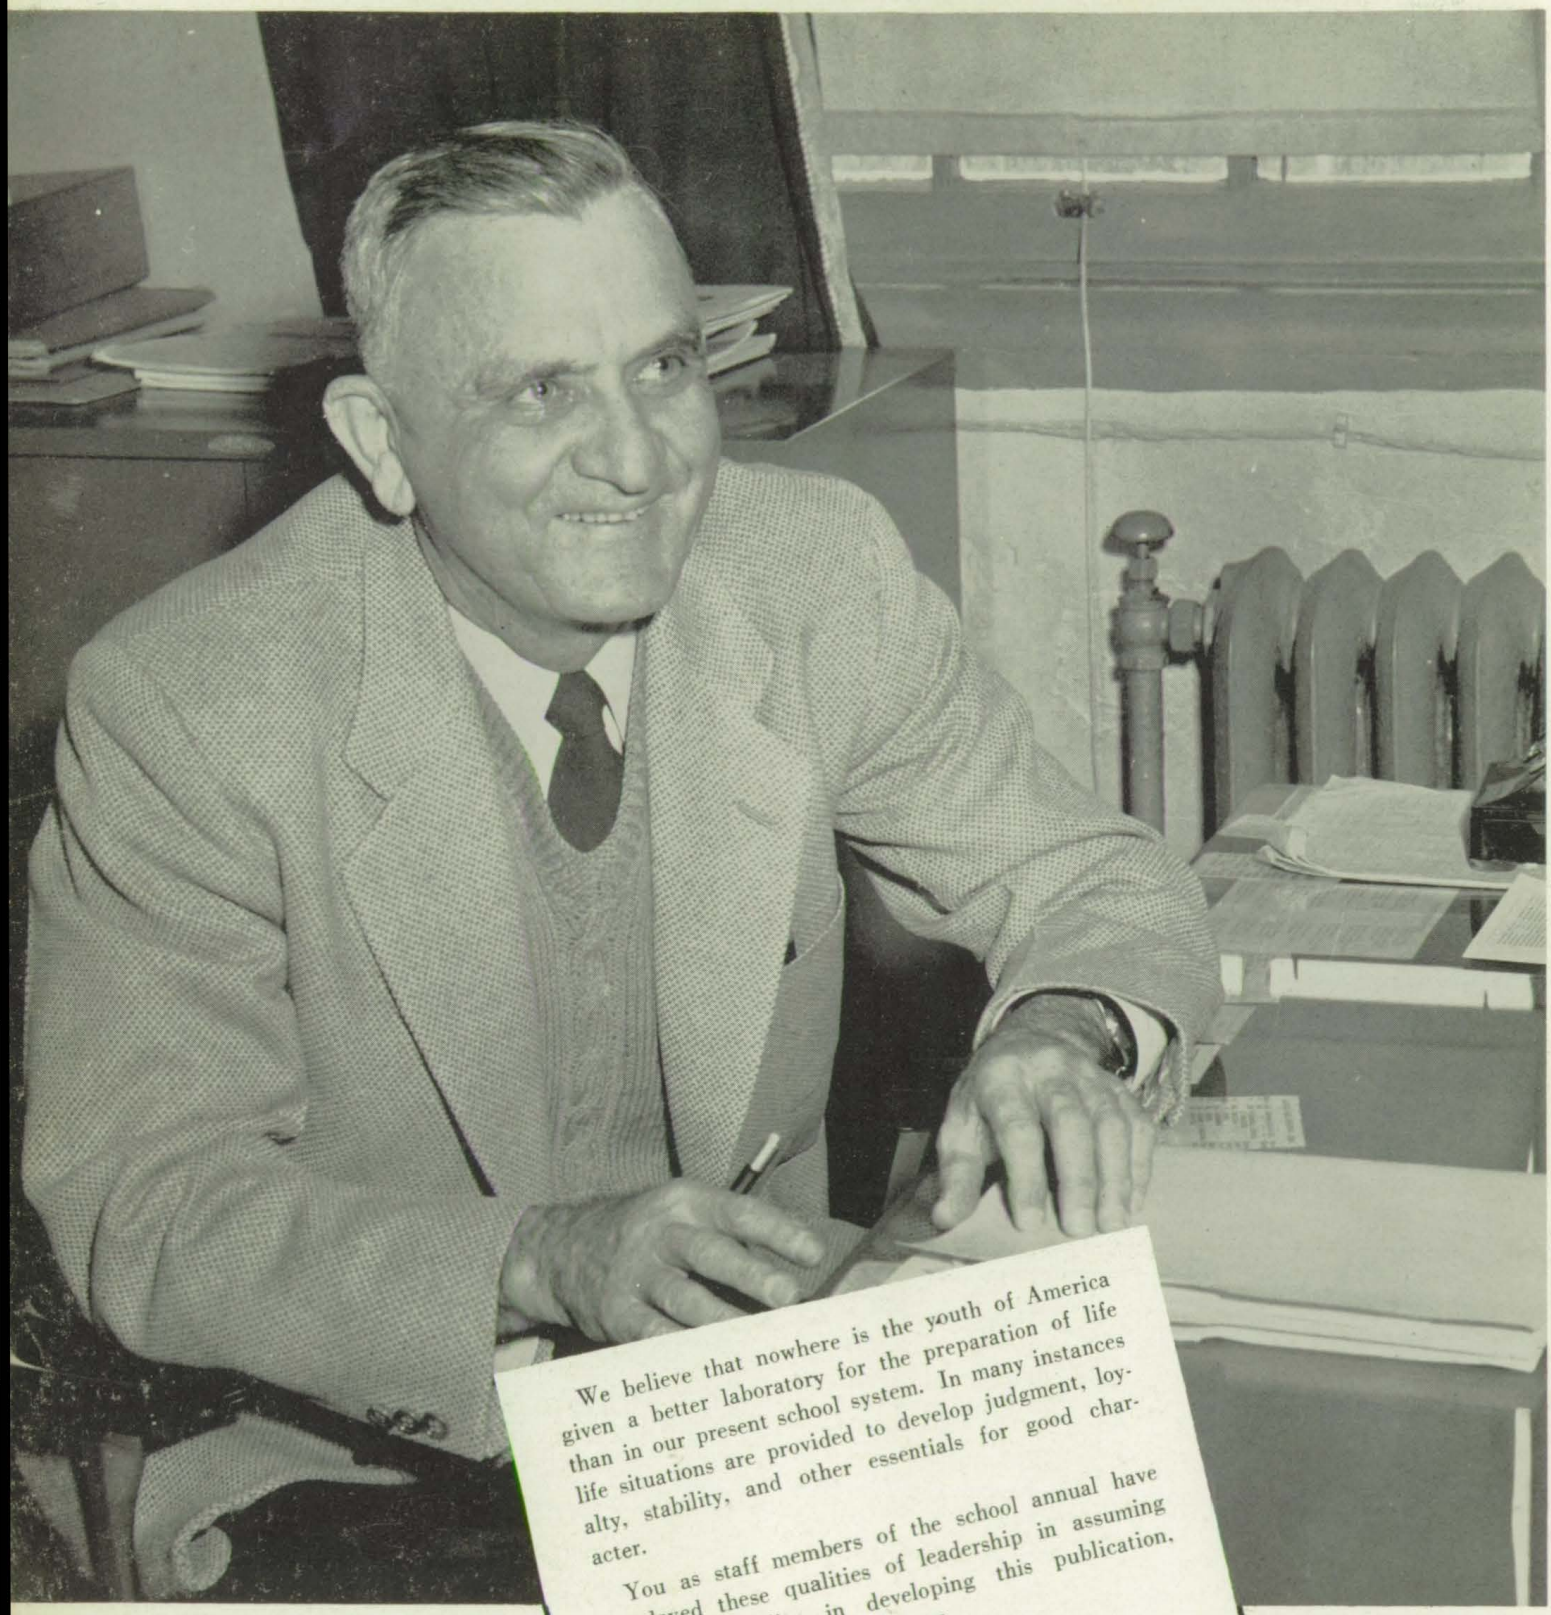
Superintendent

The Board of Education, composed of the superintendent and assistant superintendent of schools, ten business and professional men, and three ex-officio members, has full power of the system of education both for Bibb County children between the ages of six and sixteen and for adults. The act to establish a permanent board with perpetual succession of members was approved by the General Assembly in 1872. The present members, like former members, give their time and services in an effort to maintain staffs, type of instruction, and buildings that are a credit to the citizens of the county.



Mr. W. Howard Bridges
Assistant Superintendent

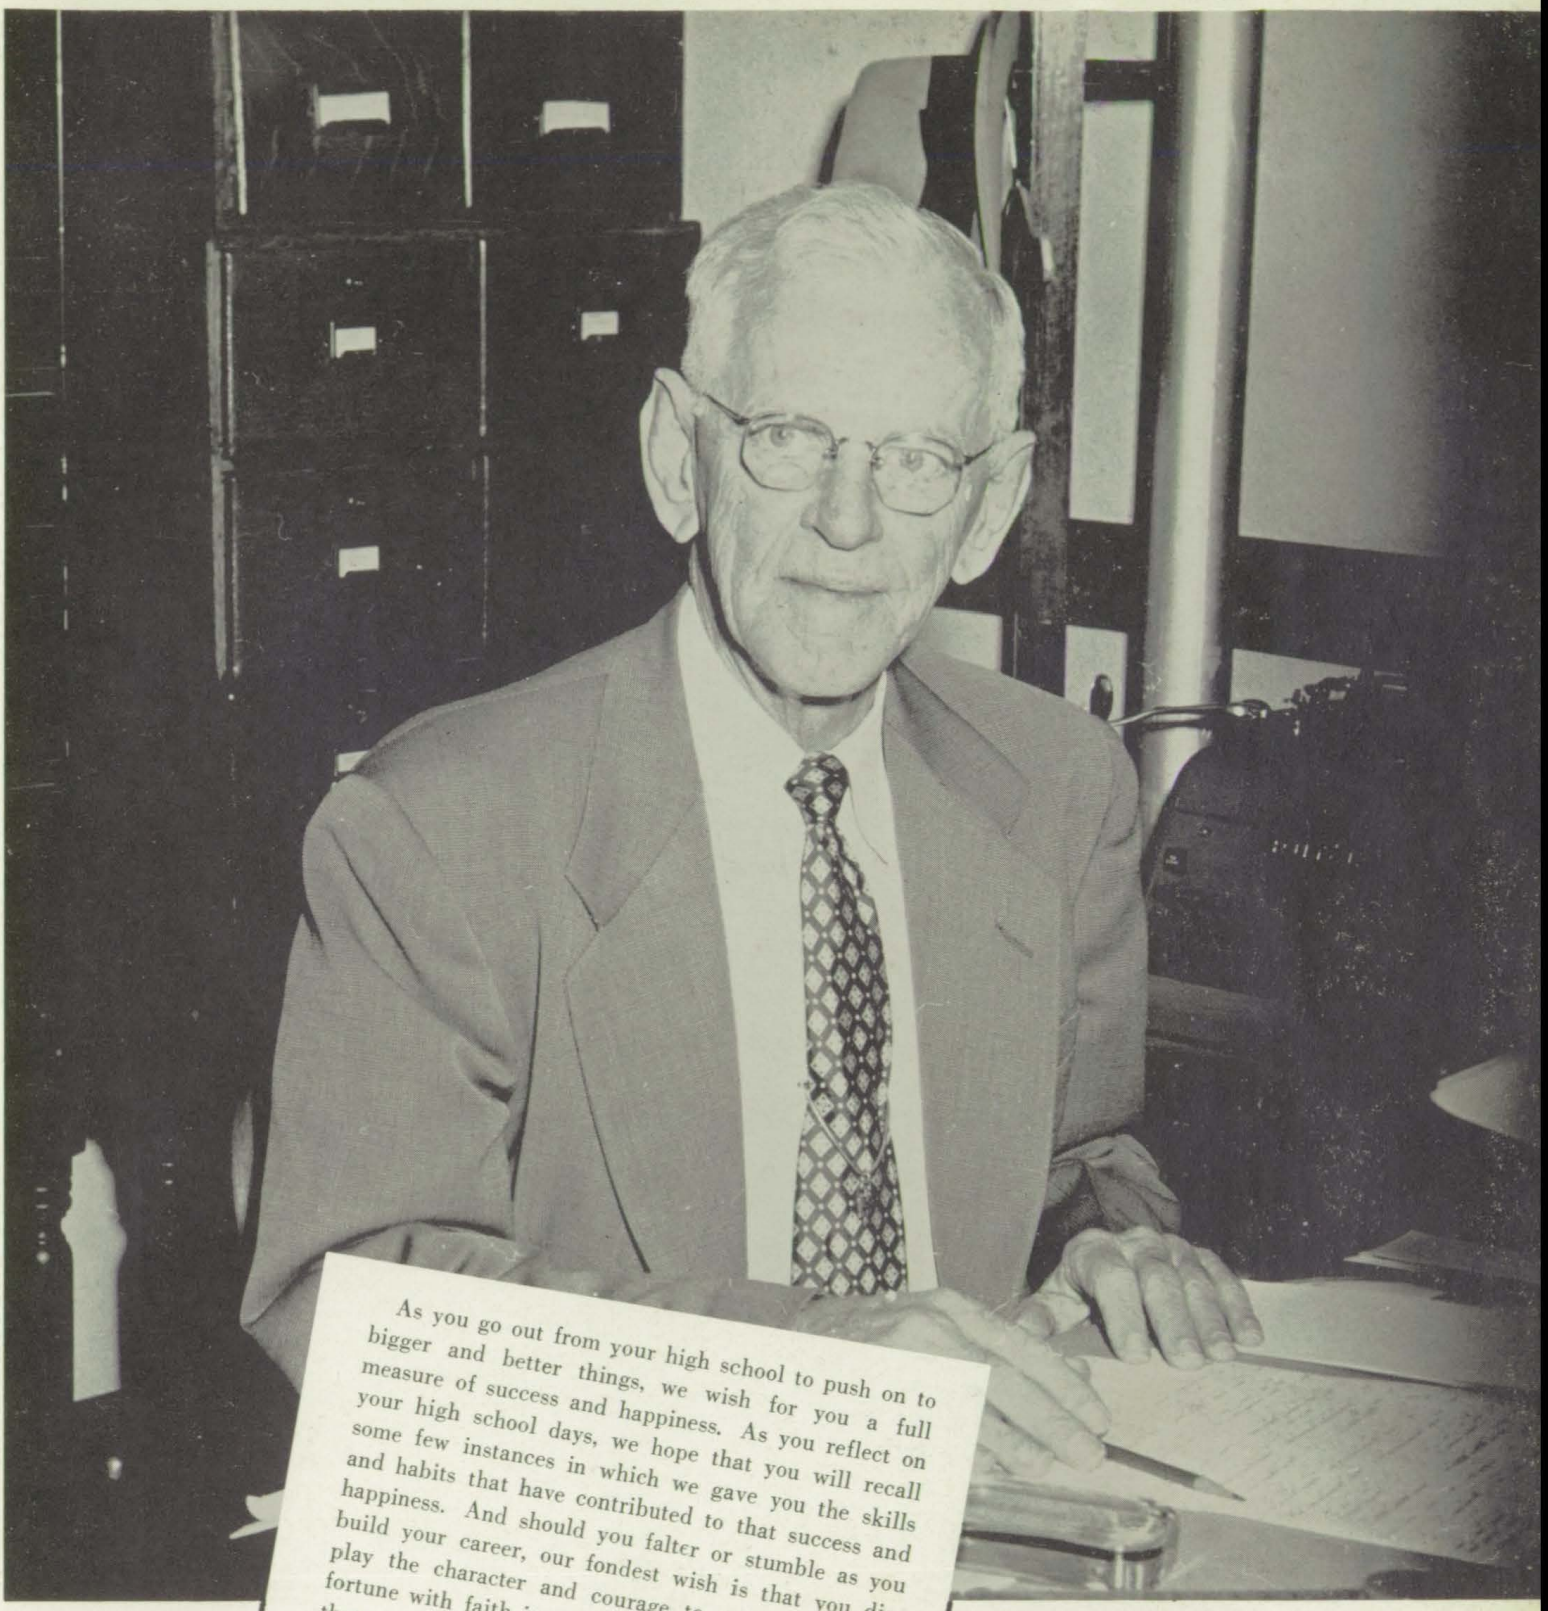


We believe that nowhere is the youth of America given a better laboratory for the preparation of life than in our present school system. In many instances life situations are provided to develop judgment, loyalty, stability, and other essentials for good character.

You as staff members of the school annual have displayed these qualities of leadership in assuming the responsibility in developing this publication, which is indeed a tribute to you.

A. J. Swann

These Are the Efficient Hands



As you go out from your high school to push on to bigger and better things, we wish for you a full measure of success and happiness. As you reflect on your high school days, we hope that you will recall some few instances in which we gave you the skills and habits that have contributed to that success and happiness. And should you falter or stumble as you build your career, our fondest wish is that you display the character and courage to accept that misfortune with faith in yourself and that you remember that we believe that you will accept your problems in this spirit.

IN MEMORIAM

EDITH EUGENIA POSS RANDALL AUBREY REYNOLDS

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

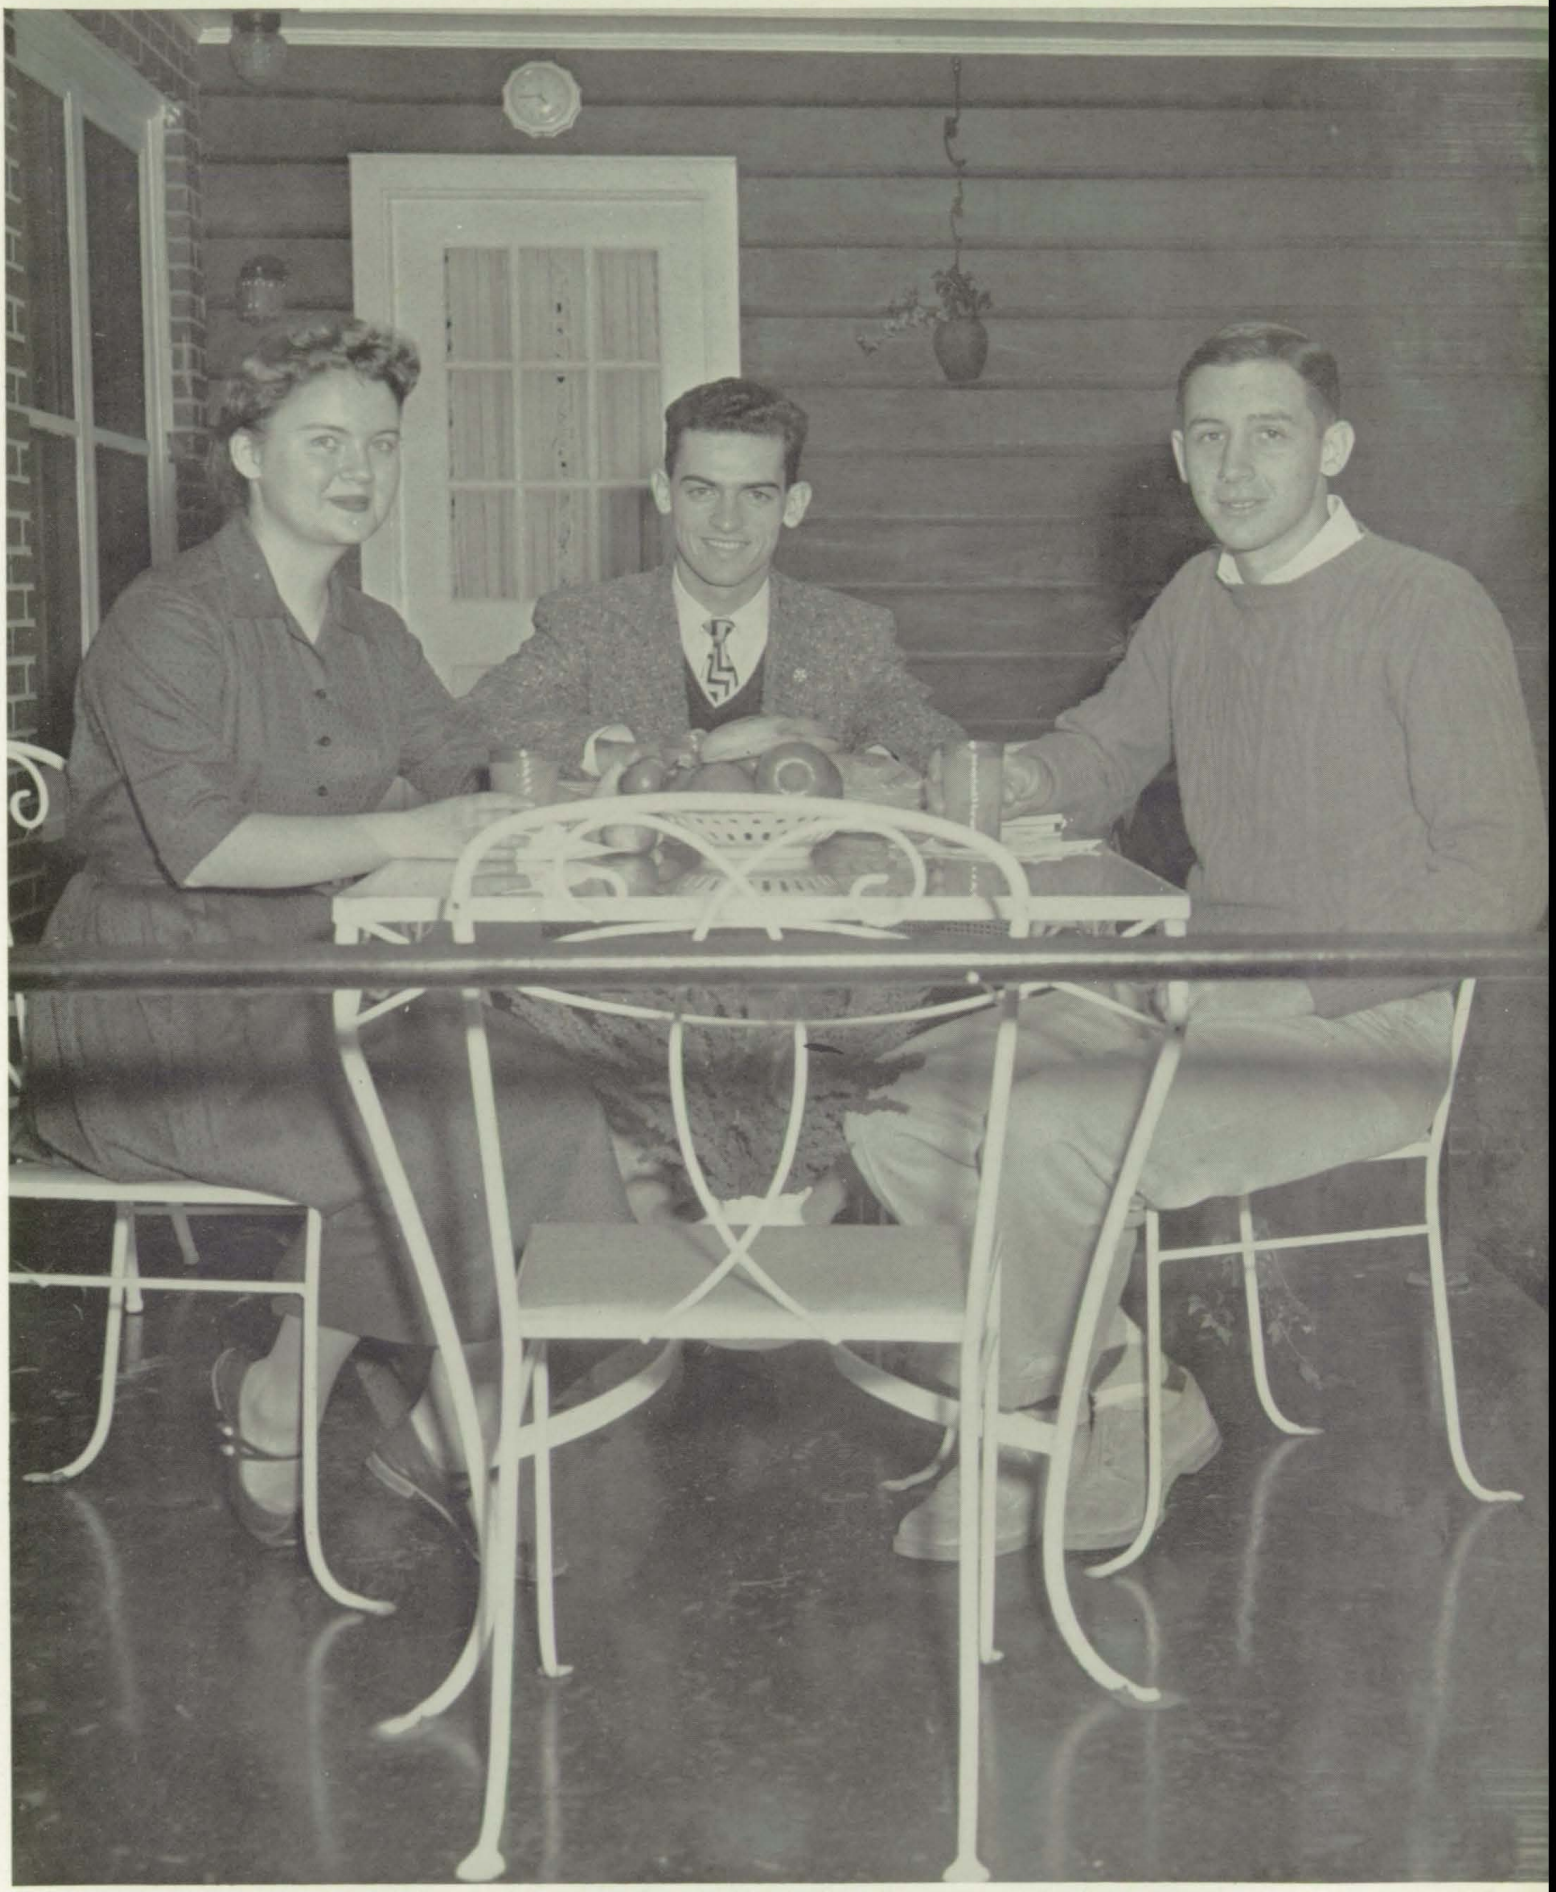
ACTIVITIES

Anne and John, editors, seem pleased as they look over the proposed layout of the 1958 Miller-Lanier Annual.

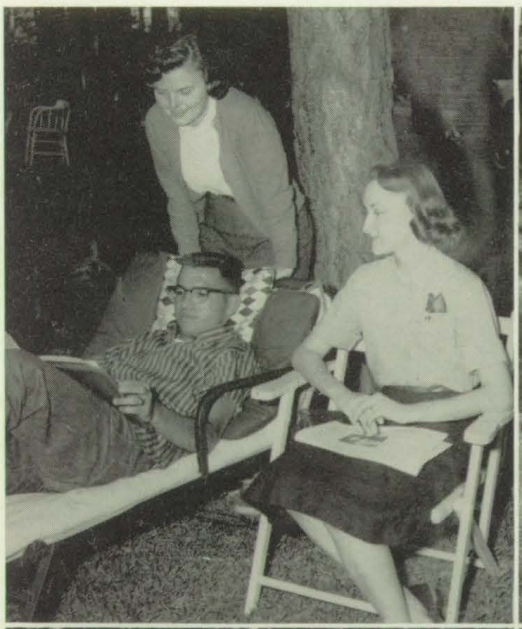


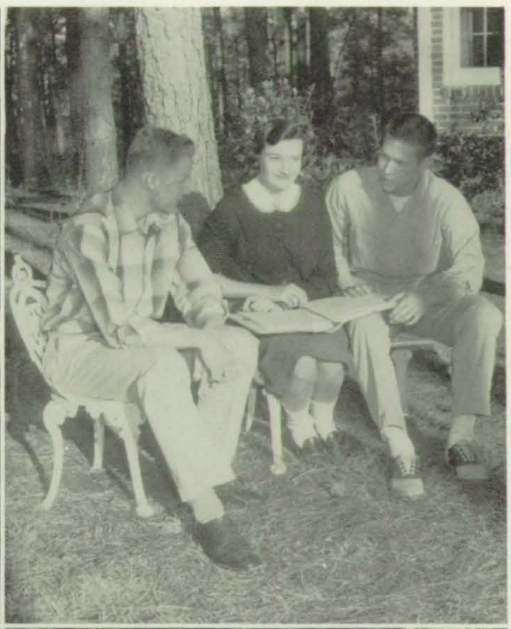
Cynthia Comer and Douglas Askew, business managers of the annual, and Frank Armstrong, advertising manager, stop their work for a bit of refreshment.

One of the first tasks confronting the editorial staff is the selection of a theme. John Seals, Anne Dunlap, editors, and Charles Hales seem quite interested as they discuss their ideas for the 1958 book.

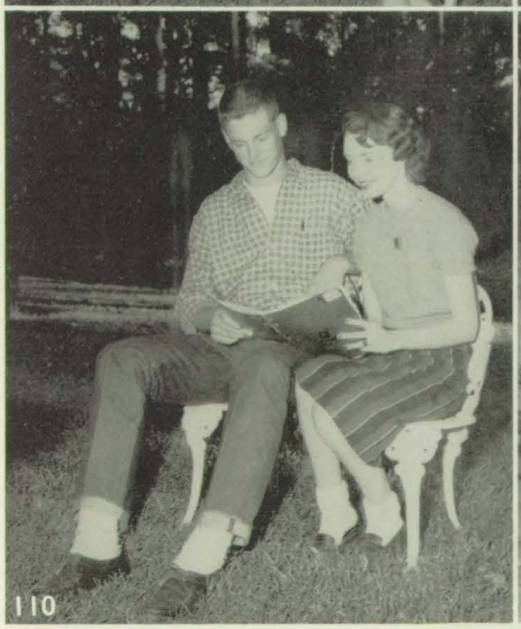
Cooperation Is Essential in the

The staff of the Miller Lanier Annual has the stupendous task of editing the yearbook. Staff members soon learn terms new to them layout, dummy, job number, deadline, and on and on as they write and re-write copy, as they draw up pages and as they prepare pages for mailing.





Sandra Rodgers and Ann Oldham approve an arrangement of a page drawn by Hunt Sanders.



Billy Chase, Palmer Lamback, and Billy Hicks plan the arrangement of pictures in the section featuring clubs and activities.

The selection of a cover for the book was primarily the responsibility of David Smith and Sylvia Carroll who are delighted with their choice.

Jolaine Tidwell and Rose Petty take a moment off from their job of typing copy and relax on the east terrace at Miller.

Of equal importance is the business staff of the annual. Knowing that they have sold ads and managed their share of the work, Janet Johnson, Gordon Jackson, Bob Reagan, David Howard, and Phyllis Hobbs can now look forward to their first glimpse of the completed book.

Production of a Yearbook

Gerald Stuart, Lanier typist, Francis Clark, and Betty Stroup, in their years of work in selling ads and annuals, writing receipts and keeping books, have learned valuable facts and practical information.

Angela Reeves and Katherine McNeely remember and recall vividly some of their experiecnes in selling ads.

These girls are sophomore and junior biographers.

Miss Catherine Jones, Miss Gerry Jackson, and Mrs. Elizabeth Poe Clark are Miller faculty advisors.

The very capable Lanier faculty advisors are Mrs. Richard Mathews, Miss Nellie Lamar, and Mr. J. C. Sorrells.

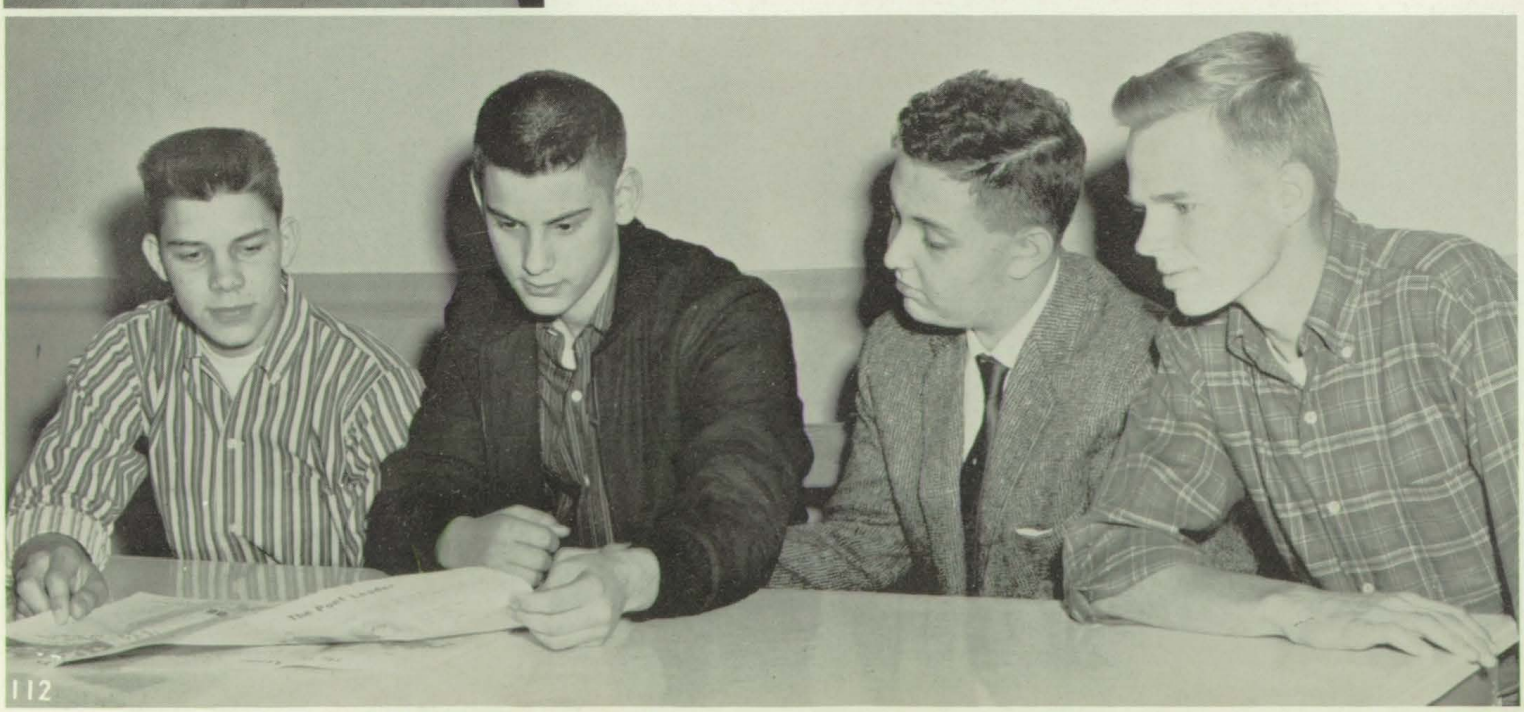
School Newspapers . . . in Their

THE POET LEADER BUSINESS STAFF handles the advertising, sells subscriptions, and circulates the papers. The staff includes Wesley Walker; Mike Bashuk, business manager; Harold Levine and Shawn Miller.

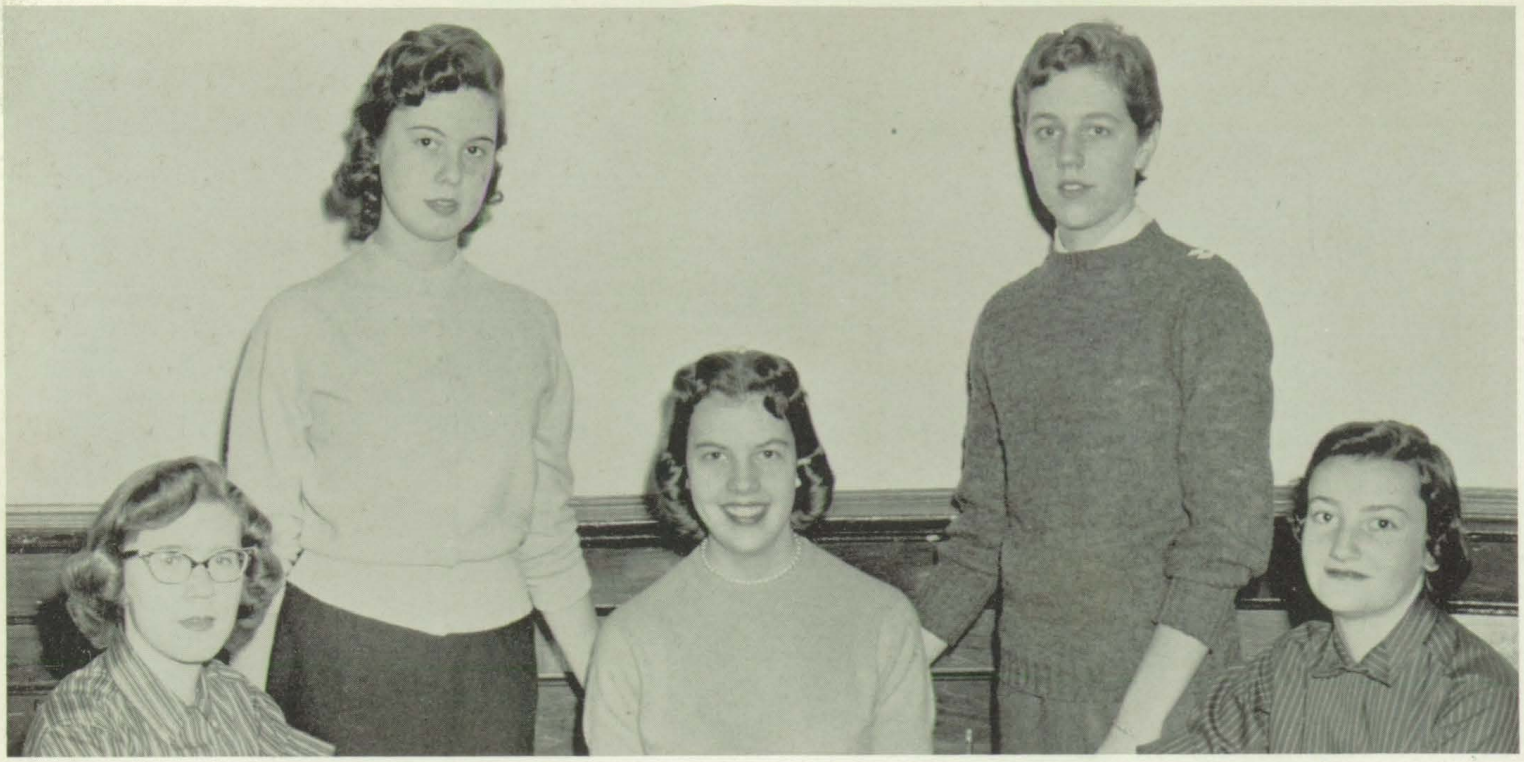


Ann English, editor, and members of the editorial staff—all students in journalism—prepare another issue of Miller's student newspaper publication, the GIRLS HI-LIGHTS.

Publication Lies the Basic Foundation for Future Journalists

The three members of the business staff lay out the ads, consult their records, and check over their finances as they do their assigned duties in getting out this issue.

Quite pleased with their efforts to sell the most ads are these ad solicitors who seem equally delighted with their prizes—subscriptions to SEVENTEEN.



Miller's STUDENT COUNCIL officers—Peggy Dubose, Bet Miller, Betsy Ezell, president, Sophie Clark and Palmer Lamback lead the student body in carrying out the theme, Our Responsibility.

Student Council . . . the Representative

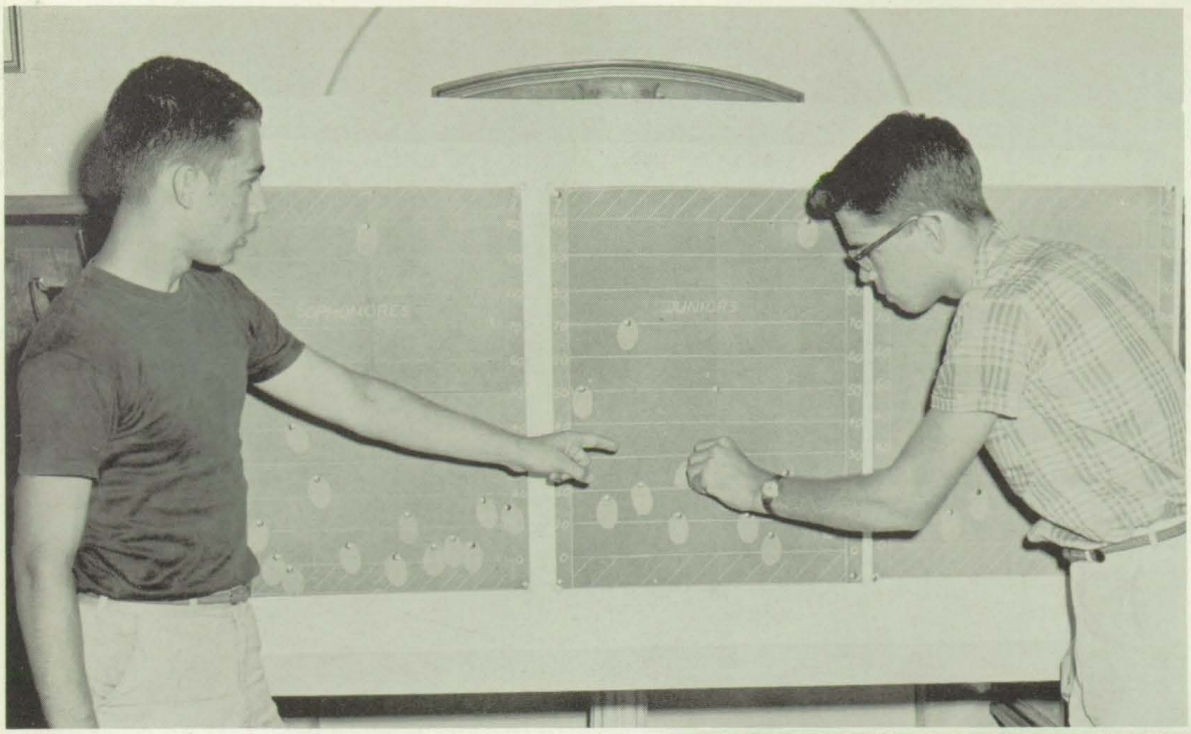
The Executive Council, composed of the class presidents, Merri Massey, Gena Kernaghan, and Linda Carstarphen, and the aides, Jolaine Tidwell, Karen Bargeron, Sondra Slocumb and Mary Vance, meets often to confer on school projects.

Throughout the entire school are evidences of the work and the many projects sponsored by MILLER'S STUDENT COUNCIL which is composed of one representative from each supervision.

Government of the Two Schools

At a memorable assembly, STUDENT COUNCIL presented to the school an American flag, accepted by Mr. Lasseter.

Another project of this year's council was the placing of markers around the school on shrubbery planted in memory of former students and teachers.



The Lanier STUDENT COUNCIL helped the Poet Leader with their subscription drive. Here John Talbird and John Seals keep the sales progress records up to date.

Immediately preceding the STUDENT COUNCIL annual homecoming football game, a successful pep rally and bonfire were held at the stadium.

At one of the STUDENT COUNCIL dances, George Haskell stamps Cusie Chichester as Charles Giles and others wait their turn.

Mrs. Isabel Kinnett, George Hart, and James Carmichael help decorate the hall for Christmas.

The LANIER STUDENT COUNCIL officers are Charles Cobb, secretary-treasurer; Ed Moore, parliamentarian; John Seals, sergeant-at-arms; J. W. Spivey, vice-president; John Talbird, president; Mrs. Kinnett, advisor.

The Senior Honor Group of Miller is composed of girls who, at the end of the eleventh year, had a minimum of twelve points. Those who met this requirement are Sylvia Golightly, Peggy Lavender, Ethel Kiser, Ann English, Gloria McGee, Marian Bridgeman, Elaine Alley, Peggy DuBose, Phyllis Hobbs and Vivian Walker. On the second row are Jolaine Tidwell, Helen Haines, Jean Tharpe, Barbara Veal, Helen Ross, Ginny Everett, Babs Worsham, Gladys Arnold, Pat Sanders, and Eva Poythress.

Application . . . Ability . . .

From these two groups there are chosen by the girls themselves the two speakers at graduation. Other members are Gwendolyn Coleman, Glenda Nelms, Ann Oldham, Vivian Skipper, Charlotte Cheek, Suzanne Shockley, Louise Lamar, Norma Dooley, Patsy Antrim, and Brenda Addleton. Behind them are Eugenia Asbell, Sally Anderson, Gena Kernaghan, Mary Vance, Patsy Sires, Frances Parker, Sondra Slocumb, Kay Kelly, Nancy Edwards, Rose Petty, and Jean Ryle. Others who bring their honor points up to a minimum of seventeen will be added before graduation.

Achievement . . . Recognition . . .

The NATIONAL BETA CLUB is a leadership service club for high school students of America. Any Lanier junior or senior who has an average of all "A's" and at least twelve points in citizenship for the preceding year is eligible for membership in the local chapter.

The BETA HONORARY officers pictured at the left below are Chip Baker, president; J. W. Spivey, vice-president; Mr. Aubrey Floyd, advisor; Duke Davis, secretary; Ed Moore, treasurer.

Miller's BETA CLUB officers are Sondra Slocumb, Babs Worsham, president, Frances Parker, Judy Bryson, Jean Ryle and Marion Rivers.

The Growth of the Individual . . .

At Miller the BETA CLUB is a service club whose seventy-five members are selected according to the purpose of the club, to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character.

To be considered for Beta, girls must first meet certain scholastic requirements; then they are scored according to personality ratings and offices held. Members of the school faculty and the club vote on the list presented and the girls are elected by a majority vote.

The standards for initiation into BETA are high — and students must keep those high standards to remain as active members in this organization that is so active at Miller.

in Scholarship . . . Leadership . . . Personality . . .

At meetings of the club, well planned programs are thoroughly enjoyed by members. Whether they are working on skits to be presented at state conventions, or whether they are planning ways of making money to sponsor worth-while projects, BETA members are constantly trying to live up to the ideals and purposes of their club.

Miller's TRI-HI-Y officers—Brenda Bush, Frances Parker, president, Suzanne Shockley, Nancy Edwards, Margaret Ringwald, Norma Thomas and Karen Bargeron—are pleased at the conclusion of an induction ceremony of members into their club.

Setting High Ideals, Y Clubs Show the

These members of Miller's TRI-HI-Y group try to uphold their club's high standard—to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character.

The HI-Y, which is sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., is affiliated with both the state and the national organizations. The purpose of the HI-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. The advisors are Mr. Gus Parker and Mr. Russell Floyd.

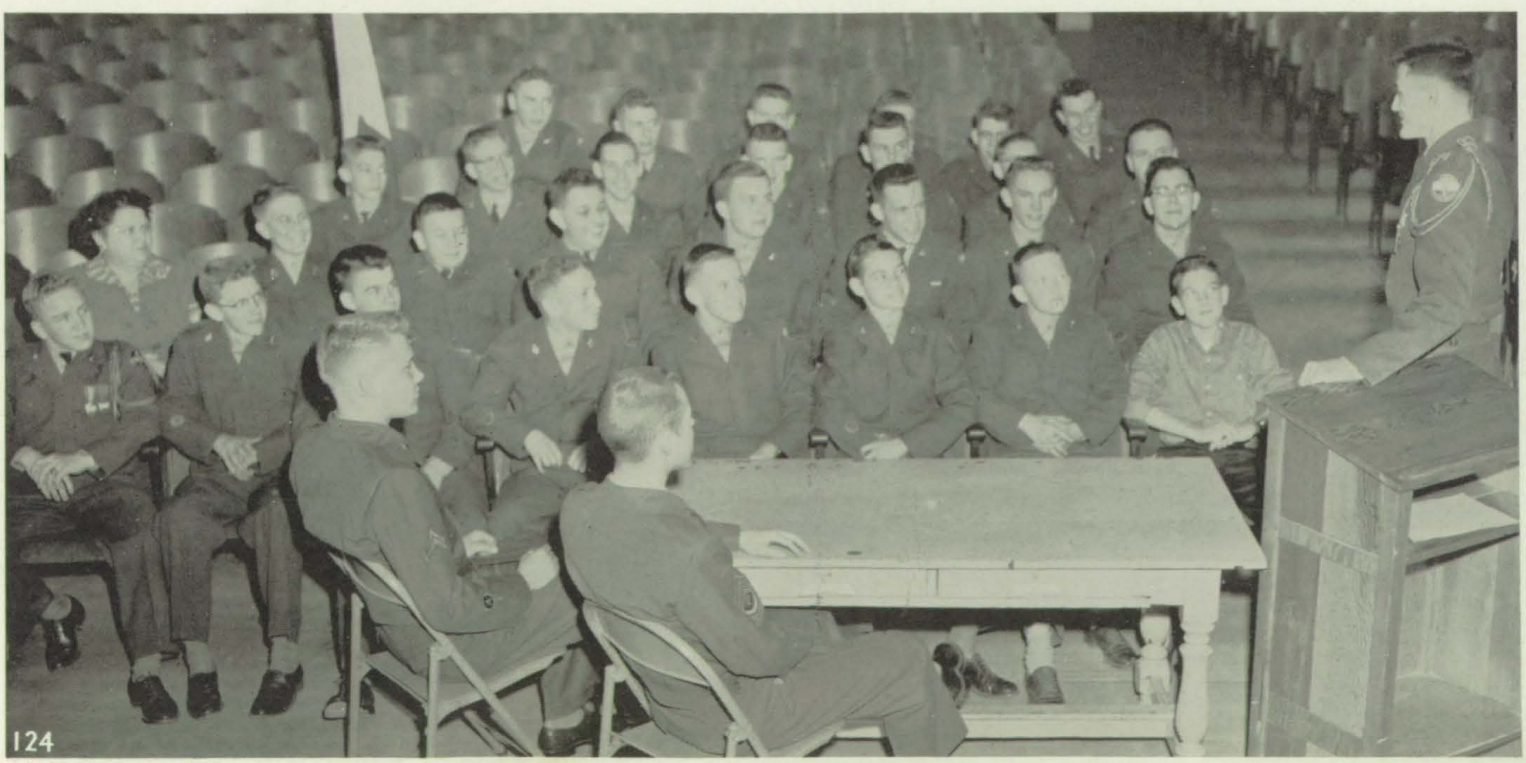
Way to Good Citizenship . . .

In the many services that they render to their school and community, TRI-HI-Y members try to carry out the high purpose of their organization.

RED CROSS OFFICERS are Billy Chase, treasurer; Elaine Lowery, treasurer; Curtis Jordan, president; Margaret Ringwald, president; Gary Purdy, vice-president; Ann Maxwell, secretary; Lewis Spiller, secretary.

Junior Red Cross Enrolls Many

The Lanier JUNIOR RED CROSS, whose aim is to serve others, is busy throughout the year presenting food baskets to needy families, collecting clothes for the disaster closet of the Macon Chapter House, and maintaining the first aid room. Miss Alice Lott is the advisor.



The Lanier RED CROSS REPRESENTATIVES contribute their services by assisting in the annual membership drive and by making a weekly report on absences caused by illness among the student body.

Members in National Organizations

Miller's RED CROSS COUNCIL, composed of one representative from each supervision, gives the students an opportunity to take an active part in the work of the American Red Cross.

Through the DRAMATICS CLUB and the THESPIAN TROUPE, Miller girls have an opportunity to attain an appreciation of the drama, to strive for a better mastery of language, and to develop poise and self-control. In both clubs membership is restricted and dependent upon points given for participation in club projects and activities, the reading and study of plays, attendance at production of plays, and knowledge of techniques pertaining to the drama.

Officers of both clubs are Margaret Williamson, Eva Poythress, president, Cusie Chichester, and Allene Smith.

Skills Acquired at School

The 1958 members of Troupe 643 of the National Thespian Society for High Schools are shown here.

A limited number of girls from all three classes at Miller are eligible to become members of the DRAMATICS CLUB.

These two Miller students, Joarlyn Brown and Susan Brender, broadcast over WNEX every Saturday morning at 11:15 the news of all high schools in Macon.

Six group captains direct the three one-act plays presented before Miller's student body and serve on their club's executive council.

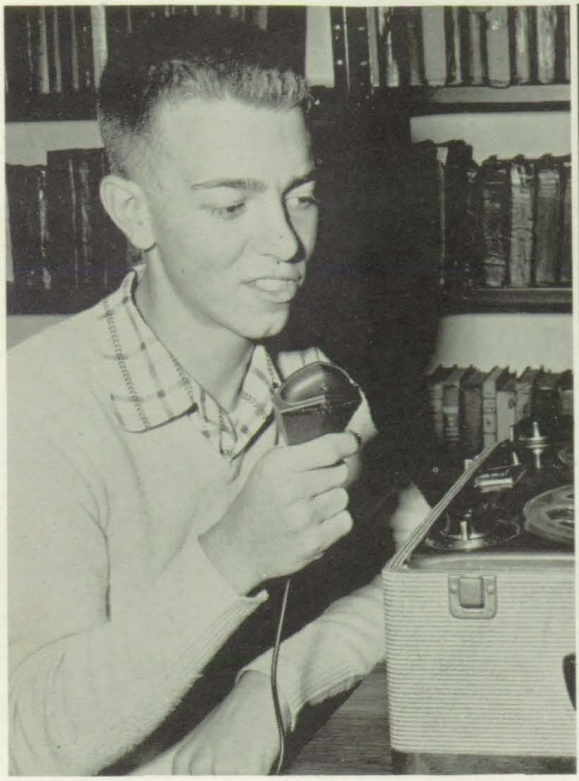
This year's Senior Play, ANGELICA, INC., by Olive Price, produced under the direction of Mrs. Ann Martin Holmes, proved to be a tremendous hit. Crockett Rader, as Angelica, supported by a competent cast consisting of Glenda Nelms, Cynthia Comer, Dianne Golightly, Jeane Fulwood, Faye Roland, Mary Vance, Pat Edwards, Harriet Devine, and Sandra Cunningham succeeded in entertaining the big audience and in adding almost $300 to the class treasury.

Angelica poses for photographer Pat Edwards, and here the complications begin.

Provide Pleasure in Leisure Time . . .

A scene from ANGELICA, INC., shows Jeane Fulwood, the aristocratic Mrs. Paine, as she listens with disgust to daughter Genevieve's recitation from Eschyles.

Here Angelica and her sister Barbara, portrayed by Glenda Nelms, find themselves in real trouble when their plot is discovered by Sandra Cunningham, the jealous and temperamental actress.

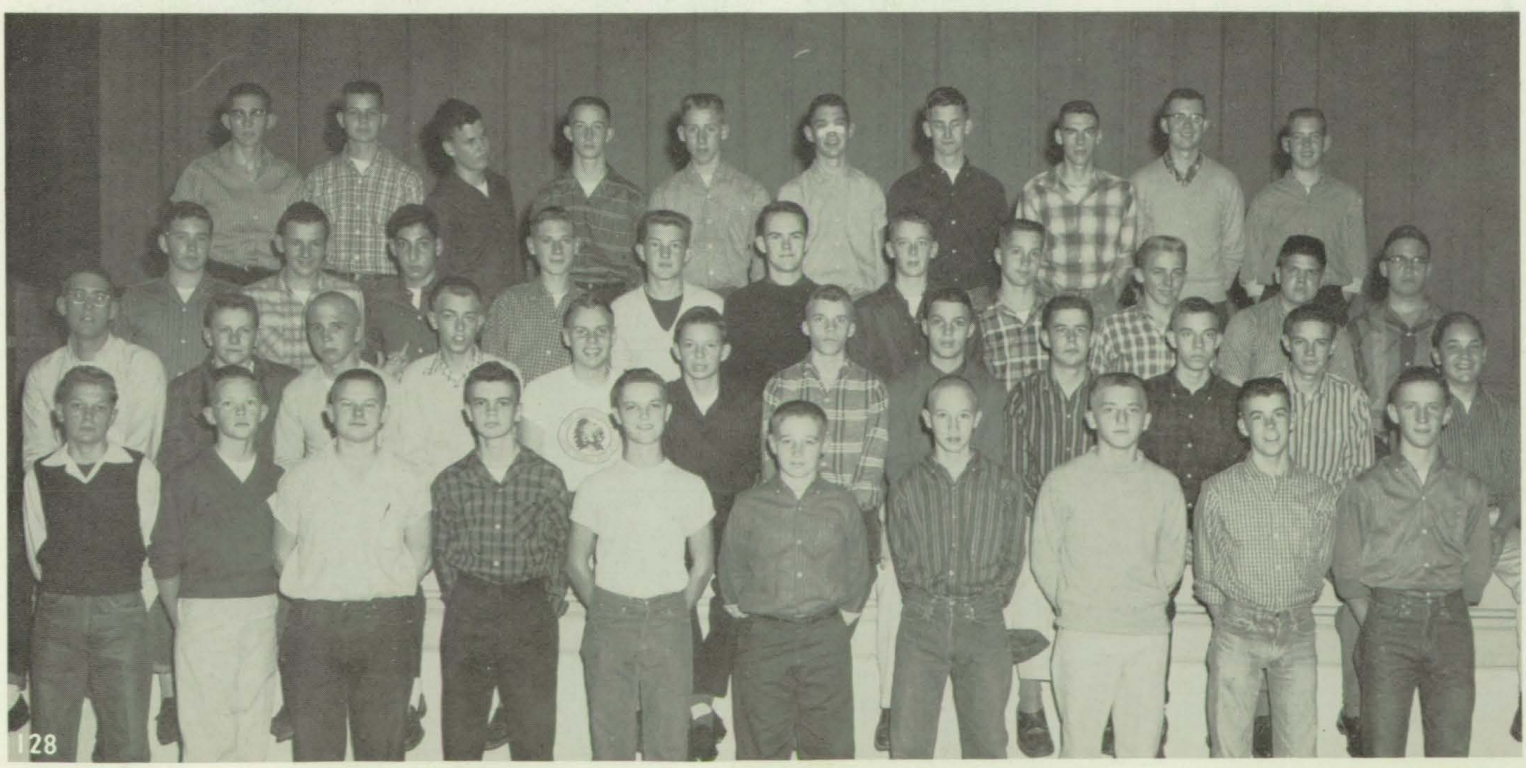


Lucian Asbell is shown here as he rehearses his speech for the "I speak for Democracy" Contest.

Officers of the society are Gary Purdy, vice-president; Ed Wheeler, treasurer; Lucian Asbell, president; Ronnie Duke, secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Glass, advisor; Robert Starr, sergeant-at-arms.

Literary Societies Develop

The DEMOSTHENIAN LITERARY SOCIETY, which was organized at Lanier in 1937 and was named for the debating society at the University of Georgia, is dedicated to the development within its members of the ability to speak with ease and correctness.



John Swift, Charles Fowler, Bill Vaughan, Bill Bartels, Benjamin Kitchens, Ansel Dekle, and Bill McCarthy hold a group discussion on "Sputnik."

SIDNEY LANIER LITERARY SOCIETY officers include: David Geiger, vice-president; Jerry Johnson, president, Mrs. Betty Rocket, advisor, and Charles Wolfram, secretary-treasurer.

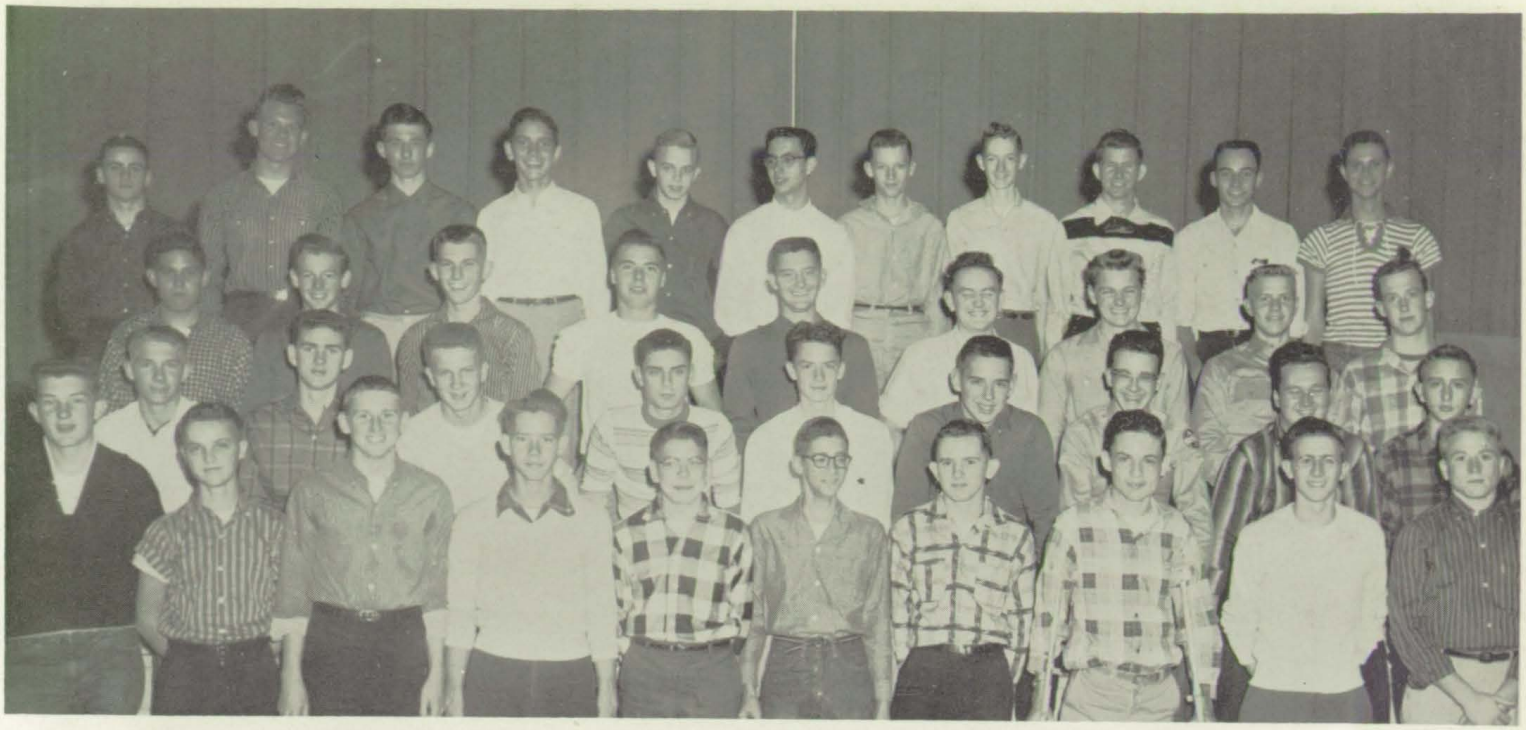
Forceful Public Speakers . . .

The SIDNEY LANIER LITERARY SOCIETY is also a debating club, which gives its members practice in debating and public speaking.

Formerly known as F.B.L.A., the MILLER BETTER BUSINESS CLUB, ably led by Jolaine Tidwell, continues its efforts to prepare its members for entrance into the adult business world.

. . . Well Trained Students. . .

Varied programs include talks by local business men and women, films, and programs organized by the students themselves, in an effort to stress the importance of skills, proper dress, appearance, correct speech, and personality development.



The objective of the Lanier chapter of the BUSINESS CLUB is to inform its members of opportunities in the business world and to assist them in choosing an occupation.

. . . Efficient Office Workers . . .

Wyndell Cook is showing the officers of the BUSINESS CLUB the Gold Seal Certificate the Lanier Club received at the National Convention in Dallas, Texas, last summer. Wyndell attended this convention. The officers of the BUSINESS CLUB are: Bill Newsome, vice-president; Marvin Clance, treasurer; Wyndell Cook, president; Charles Cobb, secretary; Lewis Chapman, parliamentarian; and Arthur Sark, scrapbook chairman.

The Lanier F.F.A. has a full schedule. First on the list is caring for their 200 acre farm, which is under the direction of their advisor and the club officers. The officers are James Carmichael, president; Gene Edge, vice-president; Charles Jiles, secretary; Lynn Ivey, reporter; Edward Harper, treasurer; and Hubert Hudson, sentinel.

The School . . . Projects . . . the Community

Mr. Herschel Simmons, teacher of agriculture, congratulates Lynn Ivey for his grand champion.

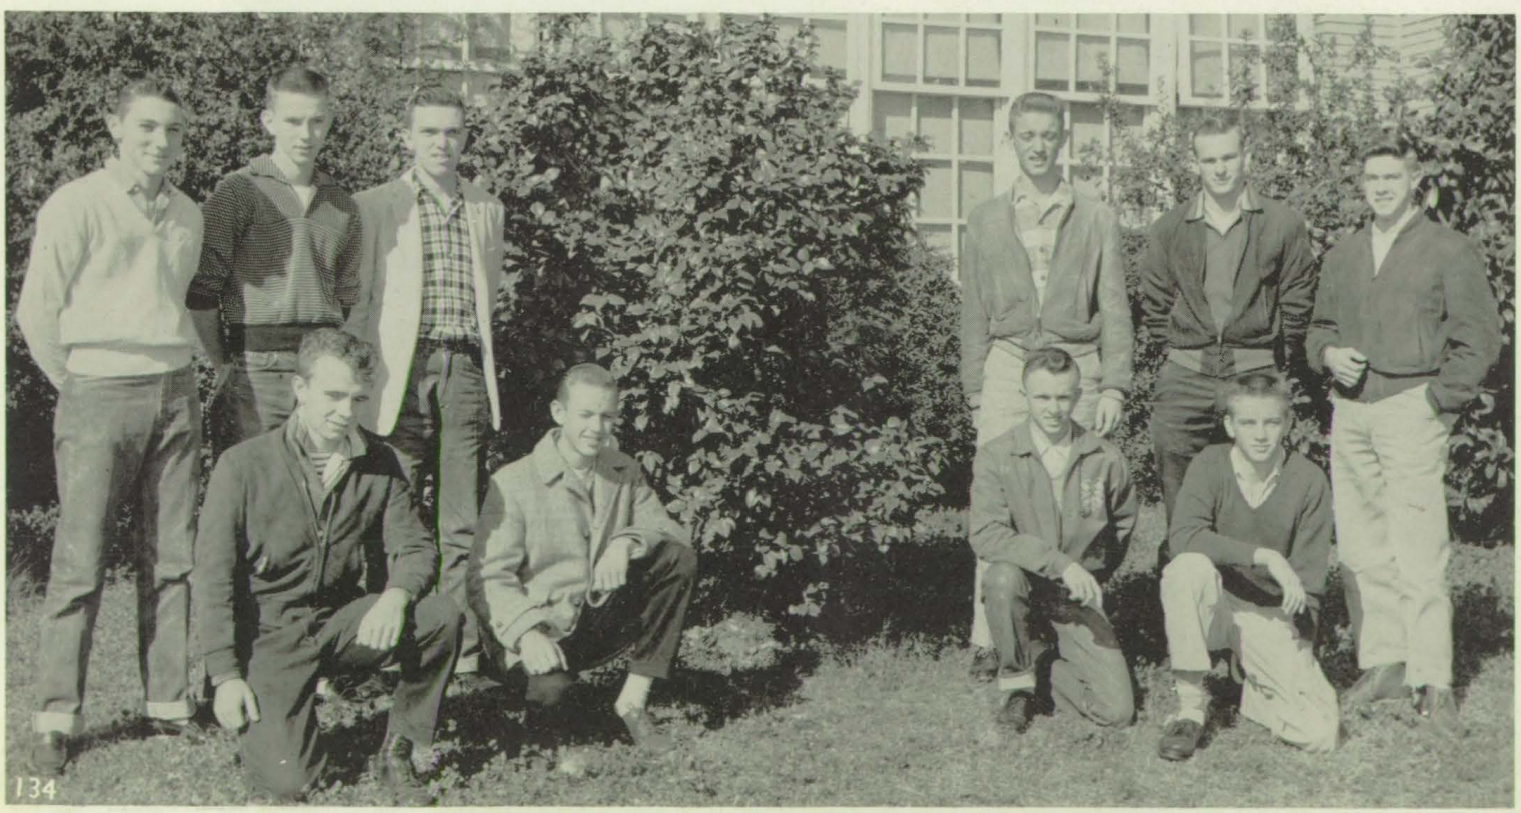
The FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA enthusiastically accept membership in this chapter led by its president, Frances Jobe. The girls study household arts, the family, family relations, and life in the home. They work on individual projects and community projects and gain practical, worthwhile experience as they put into use the methods and skills learned in the classroom.

Seeking to carry out the motto and pledge of the 4-H CLUB, these members of Miler's club lead busy lives as they complete their chosen projects in an effort to help their club, their community and their country.

Linda Humphrey, president of the 4-H Club, admires a tray and one of the blue ribbons won by club members at the Georgia State Fair. The booth behind the girls shows results of their many projects.

. . . "To Make the Best Better" . . .

The 4-H CLUB is a small but very active organization which is designed to stimulate in the boys an interest in farming and to acquaint them with the latest scientific advances in agriculture.



Miller's chapter of the FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA, under the leadership of its president, Nora Gordon, gives to girls interested in nursing, an opportunity to learn more of the possibilities of service offered in this profession.

. . . To Choose Wisely One's Profession . . .

With Karen Bargeron as president, this club—the FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA—presents to its members both a knowledge of the principles of the profession and an opportunity to put into use some of those principles when these young teachers help in the classroom.

Students spend endless hours of intense study and concentration in the quiet atmosphere of Miller's library. Reading parallel, making outlines for essays, using reference books, looking up information all this—and more—makes the Miller girls unaware of a photographer.

Rose Petty and Marian Bridgeman, officers of the Miller Thrift Bank, encourage and aid students and faculty to save for that rainy day.

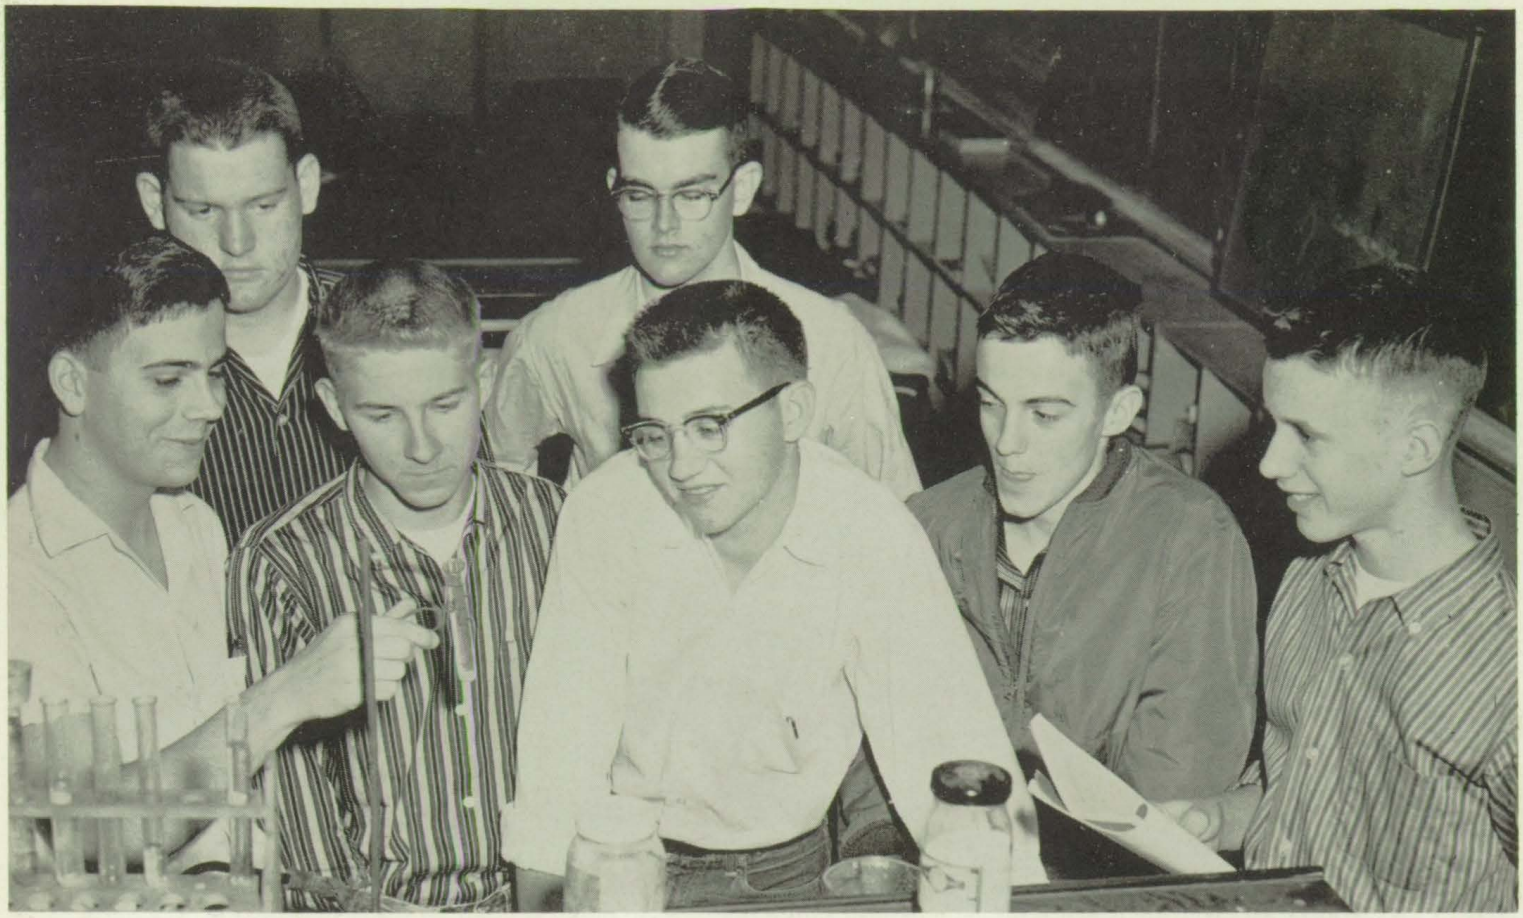
. . . Students Study Sometimes . . .

Girls deeply interested in library work gain practical experience as they work with the librarian in an effort to maintain a good library. Betty Jane Roberts is president of the Library Assistants at Miller.

Two CHESS CLUB OFFICERS, George Haskell, president, and Steve Meadows, second vice-president, absorb themselves in a game. Looking on are Mr. Robert Taylor, advisor; Charlie Jordan, secretary and treasurer (seated); and Scrappy Jordan, first vice-president.

. . . Save Sometimes . . . and Play Sometimes

The CHESS CLUB is composed of a group of boys who like and enjoy chess. Tournaments are held within the club and against other clubs and players.



The CHEMISTRY CLUB watches as one of its members carries out an experiment.

The PHYSICS CLUB poses in the physics laboratory with a planetarium. Where are Sputnik and Explorer?

Miller's CHEMISTRY CLUB officers—Pat Sanders, president, Brenda Addleton, Ethel Kiser, Margie Hurst, and Dianne Golightly plan for club members programs of great interest and trips to local industrial plants.

Students Today . . . Scientists of Tomorrow . . .

Membership in the club is restricted to Chemistry students having a required number of points gained by scholastic grades, participation on club programs, and the trips made with other members to places interesting to students of science.

The Lanier KEY CLUB is a school service club and a member of the Key Club International. The organization is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club members who give their time and inspiration in guiding and leading the group.

Good Neighbors and Good

The SPANISH CLUB promotes interest in spoken Spanish and the culture and customs of Spanish-speaking countries. Advisors are Miss Nellie Lamar and Mr. Aubrey Floyd.

AMERICANISM CLUB officers include Mr. Landon Brent, advisor; George Hart, president; Ken Hall, vice-president; Bubber Youmans, secretary-treasurer.

Citizens

The purpose of the AMERICANISM CLUB is to teach the principles of citizenship and governmental procedure to its members. The organization also sends a group of its members to visit the legislature in Atlanta each year.

The LANIER HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT BAND directed by Mr. T. M. Gaughf presents musical programs on special occasions throughout the school year. The Spring Concert and an annual musical show, Dixie Doodle Dandy, are the two programs at which the band performs. Small ensembles, such as the Dixieland Band, are chosen from among the Concert Band members. Soloists for the State Music Festvial also come from this group.

The Miller-Lanier GLEE CLUB, led by Mrs. A. J. Johnson, presents a program of music for a Christmas assembly at Lanier. The sixty voice chorus presents various choral programs at both high schools throughout the year. The group also makes frequent trips to colleges and universities in the state to attend the different musical festivals.

The Music Appreciation Club, one of the most popular clubs at Miller, has as members those girls who are interested in music.

Through Performing . . . Hearing . . .

Members of the club and talented musicians and informed experts outside the club present a variety of interesting, well planned programs for the regular club meetings.

Officers of the MUSIC CLUB—Caryl Allen, Virginia Ezell, Brenda Bush, Jan King, Betsy Livingston and Holly Woodruff—gather around the piano as their president, Judy Jones, prepares to play for them.

. . .Studying . . . Comes Appreciation . . .

Under the charge of Vivian Skipper, Florene Gordon, and Helen Haines, manager, the Miller Book Store renders valuable training to its workers and helpful service to Miller students.

The Lanier PAPER SHOP is operated by John Talbird, Gene McClure, Dudley Dugger and Tommy Richardson.

The ORANGE AND GREEN STAFF with their advisor, Mr. Gratigny, look over last year's issue. Edd Wheeler is editor, Robert Starr is managing editor, and associate editors are James Brooks and Bill Watson.

The Lanier LIBRARY ASSISTANTS are James Hardman, Larry Defore, Richard Webb, Tommy Bush, William Rish, and Harvey Haines. Also shown is Miss McCaw, librarian.

The INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB gathers around some of their finished projects. Officers are James Self, president; Wilfred Rainey, vice-president; Joe Carroll, secretary-treasurer; and Joe Bruskie, sergeant-at-arms.

Miller Class Sponsors — Senior, Junior, Sophomore

MISS MACON FUTURAMA was the title selected for the career night at Miller sponsored by the Quota Club of Macon and the Miller Guidance Council. Parents and girls visited classes, conducted by Quota members actually engaged in those occupations, to ask questions, to make plans for further study, and to arrange for future interviews.

A short play, written by one of the speech classes and presented in the auditorium, showed clearly the need for guidance in the choice of a career.

Interested students and parents took advantage of this most informative program.

On each side of Frances Parker, Miller's Best Citizen for 1957-58, are the two runners-up, Gracie Roland and Ginny Everett. Of these three elected by popular vote of the Seniors, one was selected by the faculty in recognition of the way in which she measured up to standards set by D.A.R. club members.

Safety first is an important slogan in all sports. These Millerites show that the use of shin guards and glasses' guards enables them to play safely a game of field hockey.

at Miller . . . Protective Equipment . . . a Safe Game

Every catcher uses a face mask, and every fielder has her glove when she goes out to play softball.

These five archers know that they must protect themselves with arm guards and gloves as they use their bows and arrows.

Sandra anticipates her shot in volleyball. Will she make it?

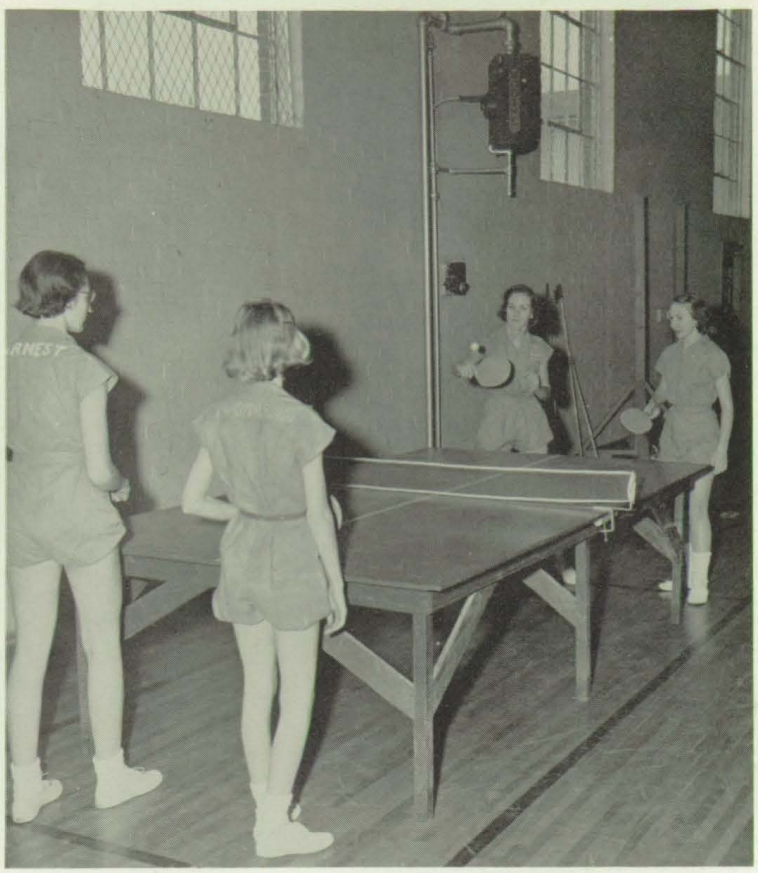
Barbara blinks as she draws and aims for the gold of the bull's eye.

Development of Skills . . . Enjoyment

Such coordination as this should produce a score in hockey.

These players are driving forward as the soccer ball is passed across the field.

Every one of these players is anxiously waiting to see if a goal is made.



These ping-pong players wait too—to see if the serve will be returned.

Participation . . . Spectators . . .

It's Spring—and time for softball and speedball, two of Miller's most popular sports.

Nida takes a hearty swing—and misses! Dale sets the ball up to herself! Look at the girls!

This enthusiastic cheer and rally after the game indicates good sportsmanship.

What fun these girls seem to be having as they decorate a goal post in preparation for the game.

Cheerleaders . . .Spirit . . .

These sophomore cheerleaders are always ready to lead their classmates in a peppy yell.

Shewell and Sandy closely watch this jump in basketball.

Marian and Sophie prepare for a penalty kick in soccer.

Gym Assistants Referee All Sports

Barbara and Brenda awarded a bully for a double foul in hockey.

Sondra tosses the ball to start a game of speedpinball as Shirley watches carefully for violations.

Linda and Norma check the roll for this second period gym class.

Passing out pinnies is another of the duties that Peggy has to perform. Could we have lost Cissy in all this crowd?

and Perform Many Varied Duties

Sarah and Sarah Ann demonstrate a good serve in badminton.

Harriet and Jean show two sophomores the proper way to hold the ping-pong paddle.

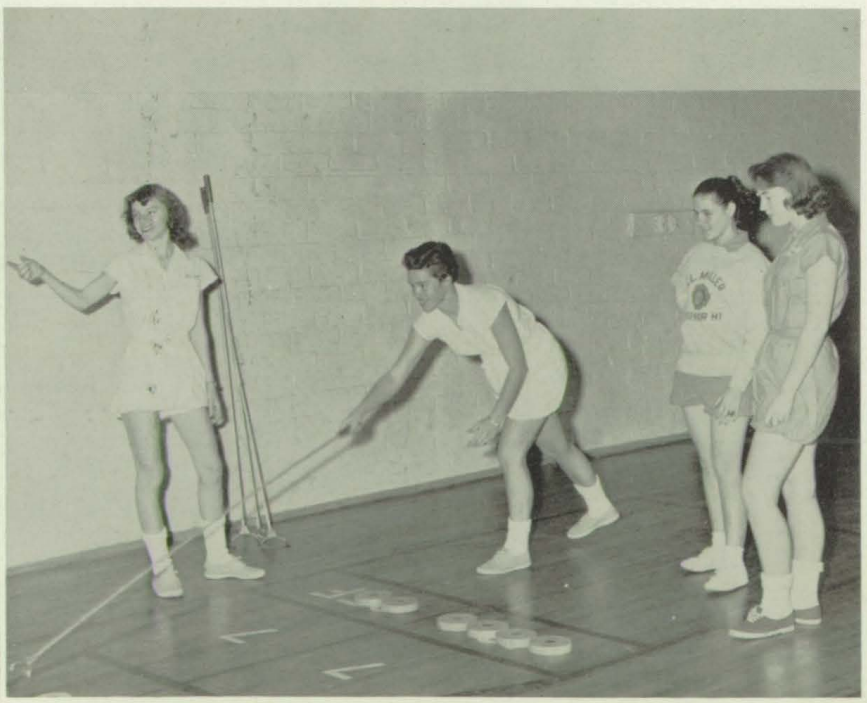
Ann and Louise bring from the gym archery equipment to be set up for the class.

Helen and Mary carefully line off the field in preparation for a big game.

Activity Always . . . in the Miller Gym.

Phyllis and Madalyn are in a deep study as they call a close decision.

Penny and Linda enjoy showing the skills of shuffleboard to these interested onlookers.



M.A.A. officers—Jan Wilson, Nan Wilson, Linda Harrison, Ray Chance, president, Jane Peeler, Suellen McGraw and Brenda Ward—plan an active athletic program for members of their club.

At a regular club meeting, Mr. Massey explains scoring and other fundamentals in bowling to this group of intent sport lovers.

THE CITIZENS AND SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK
FIRST NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST CO. IN MACON
CITY BANK AND TRUST COMPANY

Congratulations to the Senior Class of
MILLER and LANIER

You have now crossed the bay; the great ocean of life's achievements lies ahead of you. May each of you STOP, THINK, and set your course straight ahead to enter the harbor of successful accomplishments, remembering that what the mind of man can conceive, the genius of man can make a fact. That peace and prosperity may touch with golden lights all the wavelets that break upon the beach of your lives is our ardent wish.
